FROM TRAGEDY TO HOPE...
OUR COMMUNITIES RESPONSE TO THE ADDICTION CRISIS

An event to share the hope of recovery....
Please join us as local parents Kristin Smith, Sheila Morrissey and Mark Kaplan share their stories regarding the loss of a child to the disease of addiction. In telling their stories, they wish to reduce the stigma surrounding addiction while spreading the hope of recovery.

The second hour of the presentation a community panel will be held to discuss how New York and our local community is responding to the addiction crisis, while sharing information about prevention and education, discussing mental health as a co-occurring disorder and sharing the reality of recovery.

The panel will consist of members from the NYS Office of Addiction Services and Supports, Albany County Sheriff’s Department, Addictions Care Center of Albany, Chatham Cares 4 U, Guilderland Police, Second Chance Opportunities Recovery Community Center and the Mental Health Association of NYS.
